

GOODHUE COUNTY HISTORY CENTER – JOB DESCRIPTION

POSITION: Executive Director - Final	POSITION STATUS: Full-time, Exempt
ACCOUNTABLE TO: Board of Directors	REVISION DATE: February 5, 2018

Position Summary:

The Executive Director is the public face of the Goodhue County Historical Society. The Executive Director conducts the affairs of the Society, implements the policies and plans adopted by its Board of Directors, and provides strategic and operational leadership for the organization as a whole. The Executive Director is charged with developing and maintaining the long-term sustainability and building on the Society's record of accomplishment in all its programs.

A background in successful development of constituent relationships that result in major individual gifts, foundation grants, corporate sponsorships and other sources of philanthropic support is a required characteristic for this position.

The Executive Director is hired by and reports directly to the Board of Directors.

Educational Requirements

A Bachelor's Degree in Business, Management, Museum or Non-profit Management or related field with a minimum four to five years of work experience is required. Sensitivity toward history or actual experience administrating history is required. A graduate degree is desirable.

Principal Responsibilities:

The Executive Director's responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Professionally representing the Society establishing sound working relationships with government and community organizations, other historical preservation organizations, as well as individual, corporate, and other funding entities.
- Providing leadership in developing, with the Board of Directors, long and short-term programs, organizational and financial strategies and goals, and in carrying out plans and policies authorized by the Board in a timely, effective manner.
- Supporting the Board in its governance role.
- Keeping the Board fully informed of, and submitting regular reports about the condition of the Society and important issues facing it.
- Recommending policies and initiatives to the Board of Directors or relevant committees as appropriate.
- Maintaining a working knowledge of significant developments and trends in museum management, ensuring that the Society maintains best practices and highest standards in all program areas and operations.
- Serving, along with the Board Chairperson and others as needed, as a spokesperson for the Society in most circumstances, except as provided by policy. Maintaining relationships with local and regional news organizations.
- Performing any other duties as and when assigned.

Development and Finance:

In conjunction with the Board of Directors and appropriate committees:

- Develop and manage a balanced annual budget.
- Develop and cultivate new donors, sponsors, and foundation supporters.
- Develop new and expanded earned revenue strategies.

Operations:

The Executive Director is required to build capacity in the Society's many partners such as Goodhue County, the City of Red Wing, and other community groups like Rotary, Kiwanis, Chamber of Commerce, and Heritage Preservation Commissions to name a few. Some operational duties include but are not limited to:

- Conduct official correspondence of the Society in a timely manner. With designated officers, execute legal documents for the Society.
- Maintain official records and documents, and ensure compliance with federal, state, and local regulations.
- Maintain current records of members, donors, and other contributors, or oversee that such recordkeeping is done.
- Ensure the appropriate preservation and conservation of the Society's historic sites, collections, and other assets and resources.
- Develop and maintain a communication plan.
- Supervise publications and marketing of the Society.
- Evaluate, develop, oversee and promote the Society's programs: Education, Library, Tours, Special Events, Exhibitions, Publications, and Museum Shops.
- Ensure collections are appropriately maintained, fully cataloged, and secured.
- Ensure staffing of the History Center Research Library according to the established schedule.
- Supervise the development of an annual calendar of rotating exhibits from both existing collections and through the use of traveling exhibits supported by grants, if available, on an ongoing and frequent basis.

Personnel:

- Responsible for recruitment and discipline.
- Responsible for hiring and termination of personnel in collaboration with the Personnel Committee, and with the concurrence of the Board of Directors.
- Supervise staff, and interns, providing leadership that fosters loyalty, integrity, commitment and creative thinking.
- Supervise the development of an active and involved volunteer base with plans for recruitment and descriptions of specific duties to be performed.
- Maintain hours of operation as established by the Board of Directors, arrange for the staffing of Society facilities to cover these hours of operation, and other staff scheduling as needed. Track staff and volunteer hours.
- Ensure an open and cordial communications environment with employees.
- Ensure a staff member is present at Board and committee meetings, according to the wishes of the Board or committee chair requests.
